DOs

- DO dress for the weather
- DO look after your friends
- DO arrange meeting points in case you become separated
- DO think about how you will get home after the Edinburgh's Hogmanay Street Party, there are free buses running to parts of the city, see www.edinburghshogmanay.com for details
- DO appreciate that bags may be searched for security reasons
- DO let a police officer or steward know if you see anything suspicious
- DO follow any instructions given out – they are for your benefit
- DO listen out for announcements. In the event of an emergency, you may need to evacuate all or part of the event arena. You will be directed to the safest exit. Follow directions and leave as quickly and safely as possible.
- DO get to know where the emergency services are stationed (see the event map on page 5)
- DO arrive before 11pm – No entry after 11pm

For your own safety

Edinburgh's Hogmanay events are enormously popular and always attract great crowds. It's also remarkably safe, we have stewards and medical officers at all events but remember, you can also do your bit to make sure we all have a happy and safe New Year.

DON'TS

- DON'T bring glass (including bottles) into any of the event arenas
- DON'T expect entry if you've had too much to drink – you'll be refused
- DON'T bring children under 16 to the Edinburgh's Hogmanay Street Party (events on 29, 30 December and 1 January are for all the family)
- DON'T forget your tickets – you won't get into the ticketed arenas without them
